

Short Biography of Cupian

Cupian was born in Tasikmalaya, West Java, Indonesia. He received the Bachelor degree in economics from Padjadjaran University, Bandung, Indonesia, in 1995 and the Master degree in Development Studies from Bandung Institute of Technology, Bandung, Indonesia, in 2001, and currently is the Ph.D candidate in Islamic Banking and Finance at International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM), Malaysia.

In 1996, He joined the Department of Economics and Development Study, Pasundan University, Bandung, as a Lecturer. In the same year He joined the Research Center of Population Studies, Padjadjaran University as a Junior researcher. Since March 2006, he started work as a lecturer and reseacher in the Department of Economics, and Center of Islamic Economic and Business, Faculty of Economic and Business, Padjaran University, Bandung, Indonesia.

His main areas of research interest are Islamic banking and finance, Planning and regional economics. Cupian is a member of Indonesian Economist Association, and Islamic Economic Society.

