

Dr. Ascarya

Senior Researcher, Central Banking Research Department, Bank Indonesia

Dr. Ascarya is a Senior Researcher at Central Banking Research Department, Bank Indonesia. He is a managing editor of scientific Islamic Journal by Bank Indonesia, as well as reviewer of several National and International Journals. He is also a visiting lecturer and experts in the field of Islamic Economics, Monetary, Banking and Microfinance in several universities. He has received PhD in Islamic Economics and Finance from IEF-Trisakti University, Indonesia, as well as PhD Candidate in International Development, MBA in Finance and MSc in Management Information System from University of Pittsburgh, USA. He has produced 9 international journals and books, 20 national journals, 28 working papers, 3 occasional papers, 17 books, 2 proceedings, 48 international papers, 22 national papers, 11 periodical publications, and 6 research notes. He has presented in 27 international conferences and 70 national conferences. He has received two International Best Paper Awards in 2013 and 2014.