

Dr. Sutan Emir Hidayat is currently the Head of Business Administration and Humanities Department at University College of Bahrain. He obtained his PhD from International Islamic University Malaysia. Dr. Hidayat is actively engaged with academic research. He has presented several papers at reputable international conferences such as the IRTI conferences in Indonesia, Malaysia and Qatar, the GRM 2012 held at University of Cambridge, UK, the 11th Harvard University Forum on Islamic Finance held at Harvard Law School, USA. Dr. Hidayat was also invited to speak at renown Islamic finance conferences such as AAOIFI-World Bank Annual Conference on Islamic Banking and Finance and Deloitte-IRTI executive workshop 3 on Talent Development within Islamic Finance. He has also published several research papers in peer reviewed international journals and become a reviewer for International Journal of Islamic and Middle Eastern Finance and Management, Emerald and Review of Financial Economics, Elsevier. He also contributed chapters in four books. Dr. Hidayat is an Islamic finance journalist regularly publishing articles in Islamic Finance News (IFN)-Red Money and other reputable magazines and newspapers. At IFN, Dr. Hidayat has been appointed as a sector correspondent for Takaful and Retakaful since January 2013. During his academic career, Dr. Hidayat has successfully supervised and examined more than 30 Master Theses and Graduation Projects.