

Muhibat Ayoni Oladimeji (Mrs) was born at Isale-Oyo, Oyo town, in Oyo state Nigeria. She was a student of International Islamic University of Malaysia; she obtained both Bachelor of Accounting and Master of Management from this university. Presently, she is a PhD student (waiting for VIVA) at Islamic Sciences University of Malaysia, Faculty of Economics and Muamalat, majoring in Islamic banking and finance.

Currently, she is an academic staff of Crescent University Abeokuta, Ogun State, Nigeria, in charge of Accounting for Islamic banks, Zakat accounting, and financial accounting. She has served as Coordinator of Departments, member of Senate and held other various administrative positions in the university. Her research works have been accepted and published in the local and international academic journal publications and conferences. She has attended local and international conferences as a presenter. Before this, she was a lecturer at Mufutau Lanihun College of Education and a secondary school teacher